

Please consider us, the customers. Just like paid satelllite TV viewers, we as paid satellite radio viewers should get the freedom to hear EVERYTHING. In order to progress as a nation, we need to let the nation grow and that includes the freedom of speech. XM delivers a high quality standard in their programing, including a "parental" feature which prohibits the listening of certain stations. Please don't take such a old fashioned approach to a futuristic pheonomen.